A PASTEURAL

In these days of indigestion
It is oftentimes a question
As to what to eat and what to leave alone.
For each microbe and bacillus
Has a different way to kill us.
In time they always claim us for their own.
There are germs of every kind
In most food that you can find
In the market and upon the bill of fare,
Drinking water's just as risky
As the so-called deadly whisky
And its often a mistake to breathe the air.

The inviting green cucumber
Gets most everybody's number,
While green corn has a system of its own;
Though a radish seems nutritious
Its behavior is quite vicious,
And a doctor will be coming to your home.
Eating lobster, cooked or plain,
Is only flirting with ptomaine,
While an oyster sometimes has a lot to say:
But the clams we eat in chowder
Make the angels chant the louder,
They know we'll be with them right away.

Take a slice of nice fried onion,
And you're fit for Dr. Munyon;
Apple dumplings kill quicker than a train;
Chew a cheesy midnight "rabbit"
And a grave you'll soon inhabit.
Ah, to eat at all is such a foolish game.
Eating huckleberry pie,
Is a pleasing way to die,
And sauerkraut causes water on the brain;
When you eat banana fritters
Every undertaker titters,
And the casket makers nearly go insane.

When cold storage vaults I visit
I can only say why is it
Mortals fill their systems with such stuff?
Now for breakfast prunes are dandy
If a stomach pump is handy
And your doctor comes quite soon enough.
Eat a plate of fine pigs' knuckles
And the headstone cutter chuckles,
And the grave-digger notes it on his cuff,
Eat that lovely red bologna,
And you'll wear a wooden kimona.
As folks start scrapping about your stuff.

All those crazy foods they mix
Will float us cross the river Styx
Or they start us climbing up the milky way;
And the meals we eat in courses
Mean a hearse and two black horses,
So before a meal some people always pray.
Luscious grapes breed 'pendicitis,
And the juice leads to gastritis,
So there's death to greet us either way.
And fried liver's nice, but mind you
Friends will ride slow behind you
And the pavers will have nice things to say.

There is one food that we know
That to health is not a foe,
And to eat it every day is but a pleasure;
You can eat it in the night,
In the morn and noon it's right,
You can eat it fast or take it at your leisure.
It will make you strong and well
And on earth you long will dwell—
It will make all the waiting angels sputter,
It's the food the wise man buys,
For we make, then pasteurize—
You know it—it's our great Blue Valley
Butter.

NEW FARM ADVISOR FOR ARIZONA COUNTIES

Graham and Greenlee Counties, have at last secured a farm advisor. The man who will fill this important position is Mr. A. B. Ballantyne, who for the last two years has been county farm advisor in Utah County, Utah. Mr. Ballantyne is a graduate of the Utah Agricultural College, and in addition is farm raised. He is thoroughly experienced with the practical, as well as technical, side of farming, and his coming is impatiently awaited by the farmers of the Gila and Duncan valleys. In preparation for this work six farm improvement associations have already been organized, and the intention is to organize farm improvement associations in every locality of the two counties. In addition to funds from the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the University of Arizona, this work has been made possible by appropriations from the Supervisors of Graham and Greenlee Counties, and donations by the Arizona Eastern and the Arizona & New Mexico Railroads. Mr. Ballantyne will commence his work on May 1, under the direction of the U. of A. Agricultural Extension Service.

Lacked One of a Majority

The proposed amendment of the constitution of the United States, which would give women the ballot thruout the nation, lost in the Senate of the sixty-third congress, by eleven voted against and thirty-four for. A two thirds majority would have been necessary to its passage. Senator Ashurst is not credited with giving the amendment the support that would naturally be expected of a senator from a suffrage state.

A Policy of Helpfulness

It is the purpose of the officers of the Williams State Bank to encourage every man, woman and child to open a savings account, no matter how small the account must of necessity be.

We have seen many of our largest accounts developed from small beginnings—we have watched the gratifying financial growth of Patrons as the result of persistent saving and accumulating interest at 5 per cent.

As little as one dollar will register the start. Your account is invited and our complete facilities are immediately at your disposal.
